Bawdsey Bulletin

November 2015

No. 171

FIREWORK NIGHT – THURSDAY 5 NOVEMBER

We will be having our bonfire and fireworks on the usual field at the bottom of East Lane at 6.30pm on Thursday 5 November. Thanks to the Mann family for this. Please bring a plate of food to share and hot chocolate will be available as always. Monetary donations welcome on the night. Please do not put any metal or mattresses on the bonfire.

BAWDSEY MARKET

The market has finished for the season but there will be a seasonal market on Saturday 12 December 2.00-4.00pm in the village hall. Enjoy one-stop Christmas shopping. In the food line we will have meat, bread, cakes - dairy and gluten free, savoury pies, spreads and pickles, jams, olive oil and artisan vinegars. For gift ideas there will be plants, paintings and prints, home spun and dyed felted wool products and woodwork - all locally produced. See you there.

RAMSHOLT HERITAGE DAY

On the day my name was at the top, but behind was an army of helpers and behind them more helpers making it possible for the day to happen. Special thanks to the Banon Goulds, who let their home, The Old School House, be open for the day. Not forgetting help from the Game-Keepers Cottage and the Thatch Cottage. We are still working on 'Ramsholt – A Living Memory'. If you can help us 01394 411586. Thanks everyone for making it such a great day. The Church is still open and the calendars are back!

PARISH COUNCIL NEWS

Next PC meeting: Wednesday 18 November, 7.00pm, Village Hall. All welcome.
Planning Meeting: Monday 9 November, 6.00pm, Village Hall to discuss outline planning application DC/15/4157/OUT concerning School Meadow: Use of the land for erection of 13 new residential units with associated vehicular access with new parking and drop off area for Bawdsey Primary School. All welcome.
Local Plan Consultation: Following the public consultation for the Issues and Options stage of the Felixstowe Peninsula Area Action Plan and the Site Allocations and Area Specific Policies, SCDC is publishing the Preferred Options plans for further consultation. These important documents aim to ensure that the right policies are in place to enable towns and parishes in the district to evolve and flourish and to consider where the homes, businesses and community facilities envisaged in the Core Strategy should be built. These documents will shape our communities over the next 12 years and beyond so all residents are encouraged to read the plans and contribute to the future of our district. Details of the next consultation stage are available on the SCDC website and comments can be submitted online at <http://suffolkcoastal.jdi-consult.net/localplan/> from 19 October-30 November 2015. Hard copies can be found in libraries and at the Council Offices in Melton. (This includes the map of the Physical Limits Boundary (Village Envelope) for Bawdsey which residents may wish to comment on.)

HOLLESLEY PLAYERS PRESENT JACK AND THE BEAN STALKS

Silly Jack takes Buttercup the cow to market to sell, but gets waylaid by the crafty Doctor Proctor who buys Buttercup for five 'magic' beans. Jack's mother is furious and throws the beans away. Next morning not one but five giant bean stalks have grown, down one of which climbs Jill fleeing the fierce giant. She tells of a chicken that lays golden eggs and a harp who knows how to get her home. Jack agrees to go back up with her to get the chicken and the harp but they have forgotten which bean stalk Jill came down. They decide to climb them one at a time and this is the start of an adventure through five strange lands, with Cowboys and Indians, the land of Frozen, the land of Oz or is it Aus the land of giants until they find the right one and confront the giant. Will Jack and Jill rescue the Harp and take the chicken to make his mother rich? Come and see how they get on.
